

On the Happy Life

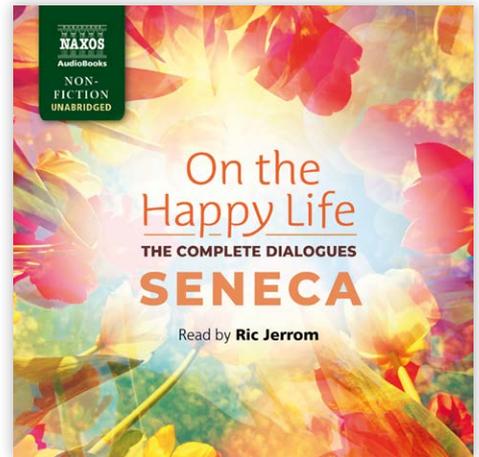

THE COMPLETE DIALOGUES

SENECA

Read by Ric Jerrom

In his dialogues the Stoic philosopher Seneca outlines his thoughts on how to live in a troubled world. Tutor to the young emperor Nero, Seneca wrote practical philosophical exercises that draw upon contemporary Roman life and illuminate the intellectual concerns of the day. The dialogues also have much to say to the modern reader, as they range widely across subjects such as the shortness of life, tranquillity of mind, anger, mercy, happiness, and grief at the loss of a loved one. Seneca's accessible, aphoristic style makes his writing especially attractive as an introduction to Stoic philosophy, and belies its reputation for austerity and dogmatism.

Ric Jerrom has devised and co-performed in interactive theatre events in over 40 countries for over 40 years, often with his main associates, the Natural Theatre Company of Bath, but also for The British Council, among many others. His workshops and lectures have instigated many other interactive theatre events worldwide. A lover of words and sound, he has recorded extensively for BBC Radio.
