

The Master of Ballantrae

By Robert Louis Stevenson

Unabridged

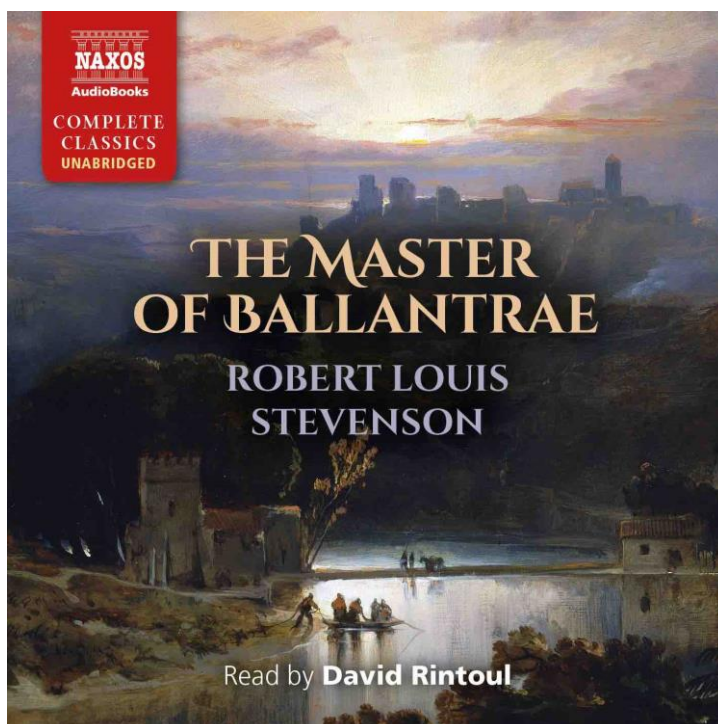

Read by David Rintoul

DESCRIPTION

Told by servant Ephraim Mackellar, The Master of Ballantrae is set at the time of the Jacobite rebellion of 1745 and portrays the Durie family. James abandons his ancestral home to support the Jacobites while his younger brother, Henry, loyal to the English King, remains. However, years later James, who had been supposed dead, returns to claim his inheritance, resulting in a feud between the brothers that shifts from the Scottish Highlands to the Wild West of America.

SALES AND MARKETING POINTS

- A compelling tragedy - Stevenson described the Master as 'all I know of the devil'.
