

Mountolive

By Lawrence Durrell
Unabridged
Read by Nicholas Boulton

DESCRIPTION

'Mountolive who had already found the open sesame of language ready to hand, suddenly began to feel himself really penetrating a foreign country...' In Mountolive, the third volume in Durrell's Alexandria Quartet, the events surrounding the interwoven community of Nessim, Justine, Narouz, Pursewarden and the other major characters are given a very different perspective. The intrigues and complex relationships are seen through the political prism of a world plunging towards war. David Mountolive, once emotionally involved with Nessim's set, now returns to Egypt as the British ambassador...
